REV. STEVEN MIKLOS KOVACHY.

Dillonvale Hungarian Reformed Church.

DILLONVALE and its vicinity have the only Hungarian Evangelical Reformed congregation in southern Ohio. It is connected with the Reformed Church in the United States, and was organized by the help of the Home Mission Board, the first of April, 1904. This congregation is a branch of the Hungarian Evangelical Reformed congregation of Cleveland. For six years Hungarian services were held four times a year, but that was not enough to keep the religious feelings in the souls of the sheep. A few hundred Evangelical Reformed Hungarian laborers are working in the mines, who live in the vicinity of Dillonvale in the mountains. To keep them together this congregation was organized by the religious Hungarian laborers. The Evangelical Reformed Church of the United States then came to their assistance.

Their first pastor is Steven Miklos Kovachy, minister of Hungary, who was sent out by the Convent of Hungary to the congregation in the United States.

Steven Miklos Kovachy was a member of the parliament in his younger days; a true and religious Hungarian; but is fond just the same of this free country, the United States, and tries to do his best in this manner by his people.

The congregation at Dillonvale has a nice lot (paid for) for the church and residence of the pastor, but they have to collect the money for the buildings yet. At this time they hold their services in the church of the Presbyterian brothers.

We have our Sunday-school in English and Hungarian languages. The music is led by the wife of the pastor.

This little congregation has a nice future. This place will be the central point of the Hungarian people of the southeast. They have already started to assemble here, and come from a distance to the service. The pastor is also visiting among them.

God bless and help our hard work. The members of the Presbyterian church are good Hungarian laborers. Their elder is Andrew Bardos, who owns a house in Dillonvale and has been a citizen for the past thirteen years. Y.

The Hungarian Work.

THE exceedingly prosperous condition of the Hungarian work must be a source of gratification to our church.

In a little over twelve years we have organized fifteen missions among these interesting people. We now have sixteen missionaries among them, and the work is progressing splendidly. The Board has found these people singularly loyal to their church. They are not easily gotten into another church if the Reformed church is within reach. They love the church of their fathers, and will not forsake her if they can enjoy her ministrations. The Board has found these people very honest and upright. They are exceedingly prompt in meeting all their financial obligations. They are among the most liberal payers in the church. Out of their poverty they give large sums for the maintenance of the church.

Their self-sacrificing spirit may be learned by noticing how they help themselves. While the Board must, of course, start the mission, it is not long until they take care largely of themselves. They are especially willing to pay large sums in order to provide houses of worship for themselves. At Pittsburg they are building a church and parsonage which will cost $40,000; at Cleveland one for $30,000; at Lorain one for $10,000; at Toledo, Ohio, one for $15,000, and so on to the end of the chapter. This is evidence of the self-helpful character of these people. But there are other points where we ought to establish churches among these people.

We are told that at Pocahontas, Va., are 5,000 of them; at Dillonvale, Ohio, 4,000. Many of these are Reformed people. We should organize them into congregations.

But the General Synod at Baltimore designated for the Bohemian and Hungarian work the sum of $9,000 only. The church then did not foresee the rapid growth of the work. These $9,000 are already all exhausted by the work we already have on hand. But when the Board meets on January 12, 1904, it must certainly arrange for the organization of two more Hungarian missions at the points above named—namely, Pocahontas and Dillonvale. The sum of $1,500 will enable the Board to carry these missions for the first year. After that time the Board may be enabled to carry them without extra help. But for the first year we must have $1,500 extra. Shall the Board go ahead with the organization of these missions, or shall these points be neglected and perhaps ultimately lost to the church? Which shall it be, ye members of the Reformed church? Of course, you will answer, "Start the missions by all means." In order to do it we must ask our people to give the $1,500. It will be a small thing for the many if it is promptly done.

Now, then, brethren, let us see what we will do. Let individuals, missionary societies, Sunday-schools, congregations and charges say what they will give. When you see this, sit down and write to one or the other of the superintendents at once, and say how much you will give. Don't forget it, don't neglect it, and don't defer it until some future time, but tell at once. Then the Board can act intelligently. Remember that you give this notice promptly. Any one of the superintendents will report your pledge to the Board when it meets. You will later on be told when and to whom to pay the money. Now, brethren of the Reformed church, this is a small thing for the church, but it is so great for the Board that your action will determine the course of the Board.

Send in your answers promptly.

The Hungarian Mission of Chicago.

THE Hungarian Reformed Mission of Chicago, Ill. was organized six years ago by Rev. Alex. Harsanyi, who is now missionary at Homestead, Pa.

While he was pastor at Cleveland, Ohio, he came to Chicago several times in order to hold services for this people and to administer the Lord's supper. He became convinced that the organization of a new congregation in this city and vicinity, if expedient, would be advisable. Thus he undertook this care and came to Chicago and held his entrance sermon on February 6, 1898, in a Presbyterian church, where the services were conducted until the erection of a proper church. The first step taken by him was the building of a new church. With the kind help of the Home Mission Board, the benevolence of the members, and the negotiation of a loan, the church was erected, and dedicated on October 31st, 1898.

The church is a frame building with a fine altar, pulpit and organ, and has a seating capacity of 140 persons. The building is located in South Chicago, a suburb of the city of Chicago, which is not only a center for such members, who live in the adjacent towns of the State of Indiana, but has also a large Hungarian population. After two years the parsonage was built in the rear of the church. The cost of both the church and parsonage reached $8,000.

In the spring of 1903, Rev. Alex. Harsanyi removed to Homestead, Pa., and by his recommendation Rev. Alex. Nanassy was appointed by the Board to be missionary at Chicago. Rev. Nanassy was born April 13th, 1881, at Debreczin, which is the largest Reformed city of Hungary. He received his early education in the three hundred and fifty-five-year-old college of that city and completed the theological course there in June 1902. He immediately went abroad and made a journey through Italy, France, England, Scotland, Belgium, Holland, Germany and Switzerland, studying the ecclesiastical and religious life of those countries. He was a student of the New College of the United Free Church at Edinburgh, the Protestant Theological Faculty of the University of Paris and the University of Basel. After his return to Hungary on September 17, 1904, he was ordained by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Aaron Kiss, (the church of Hungary holding the Presbyterian system has Deans and Bishops). He married soon after and on the 19th of September, 1903, left for

THE HUNGARIAN MISSION OF CHICAGO.

America. On the 6th of October he arrived at New York; thence to Chicago and held the entrance sermon on October 18th in the Hungarian Church of Chicago.

At the present time the church has 200 members for whom the pastor holds three services a week, (always preaching) on Wednesday evening, Sunday morning and afternoon in the church. On Sunday evening he goes out to different points where the members of his parish live in large numbers, and holds services in English churches. The Protestant Hungarians of Illinois, Indiana, Northern Michigan and the West are under his care.

The income in the first half of 1904 was $636. The congregation celebrated the sixth anniversary of the church's dedication on October 31st, 1904, by paying the balance of a debt of $12,000, and thus the church has a debt of $1,000 for the current and following years. The Board of Home Missions will add $350 to the salary of the pastor in 1905.

ST. PETER'S REFORMED CHURCH, HUNTINGTON, IND.
A. C. PRETZER, PASTOR.

St. Peter's Reformed Church.

IN the Reformed Church at Huntington, we have an edifice that is a combination of brick and stone, so proportioned as to make a most pleasing effect to the eye. The building is 105 x 73 feet. The main entrance to the church proper is through an arcaded porch, which lies parallel to the longer axis of the building. Access to the Sunday-school is also obtained from this porch, thus giving free communication between the church and the Sunday-school.

The church auditorium (50 x 60 ft.) is capable of seating 400 people and the Sunday-school with its class-rooms can readily seat 350 more. The two auditoriums can be thrown into one, thus making an audience room with about 750 to 800 seatings.

The church auditorium has what is called an open timber roof, the whole being of paneled Southern pine, in which a rich effect has been obtained. The stained glass memorial windows are modest and appropriate, which, with the chaste wall decorations, the beautiful choir screen, pulpit and organ produce a most harmonious effect. An attempt has been made to have the Tudor Gothic style of architecture prevail throughout, being carried out in every detail on both the exterior and interior.

However, utility has not been sacrificed for frivolous decoration and ornamentation. All decorations have been made subservient to utility, and an effect has been obtained which is seldom found in a much larger edifice.

The cost of the building, including all interior furnishings and pipe organ was $22,300, exclusive of costs for plans, specifications and supervision—which were contributed by Architect Will A. Stevens, a member of the congregation. The Ladies Society contributed for pews, pulpit, carpets, chandeliers, memorial window and furnace—$2,200. The Christian Endeavor Society gave $1,600 for pipe organ. The Sunday-school gave $500 for furnishing Sunday-school auditorium.

The corner-stone was laid June 14, 1903, and on June 19, 1904, the new church was dedicated, with a remaining indebtedness of between $400 and $450.

Grace Reformed Church, Chicago, Ill.

GRACE REFORMED CHURCH, a picture of which with that of the present pastor appears herewith, has a history of about ten years. The present pastor, Rev. B. B. Royer, has had charge of it five years, having succeeded Rev. J. M. Kendig, D. D., the organizer and pastor for five years. During the present pastorate eighty-nine have been added to the membership. An important fact in this connection is that of this number only thirteen were received by letters from Reformed churches. This would indicate that our church has a place in Chicago and has in it that which appeals to the people. It also means that the many Reformed people in the city are either too far away to belong to and attend services at Grace Church or despise the day of small things—perhaps both.

Five years ago the Home Mission Board paid all of the pastor's salary. This year (1904) the congregation contributes $700 towards this object. During the year ending March 31, 1904, the congregation contributed for the work a total of $1,457, of which amount $206 was for benevolence.

Besides the Sunday-school, which has an averaged attendance of about 100, there is an Endeavor Society, a Ladies' Aid and a Young Ladies' Club. Besides the meetings for prayer and praise, there are social, literary and industrial gatherings, which occupy many of the afternoons and evenings. In these ways the church seeks to be helpful to the community and supply the needs of especially the young. Through its various agencies it touches in a religious and social way many of the people in the neighborhood and to them it is the only agent of comfort and instruction in time of trouble.

The Work of St. Paul's Reformed Church, Lancaster, Pa.

IN this church the holy communion is administered four times during the year. Next to the holy communion the regular preaching services hold the most important place and are largely attended both morning and evening. The church seats one thousand people and is comfortably filled at both services. The order of service is an anthem by the choir, (after which all rise and sing, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow,") invocation, hymn, Scripture reading, free prayer, anthem and offerings, announcements and hymn, sermon, prayer with Lord's prayer and closing hymn with benediction.

The pastor attends a men's prayer service at 9:30 a. m., preaching at 10:30, Sunday-school 1:45, twilight or Christian Endeavor service, 6:15 and preaching 7:30. The church has a Chapter of the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip and two Christian Endeavor Societies, whose work is spiritual, with meetings for prayer and Bible study. They help in the work of the church and Sunday-school.

Then the Business Men's League and Ladies' Church Building Fund Circle are two large organizations, whose work is social and financial. They conduct all social functions and have charge of suppers or teas, the proceeds of which go to the one hundred thousand dollar fund for the church building. All of this amount has been subscribed, and by far the larger part already paid. About forty Sunday-school classes are so many groups of workers. While all these departments have their own presidents and officers, they are all under the immediate supervision of the pastor. There is also a Ladies' Aid Society, having charge of the charitable work of the church, caring for the poor and having power to investigate all cases of need. From a small congregation some years ago, this church has grown to be the strongest in the city, one thousand and forty members being added during the pastorate of Rev. J. W. Meminger.

REV. J. W. MEMINGER, Pastor.

"We are but organs mute till a master touches the keys,— Verily, vessels of earth into which God poureth the wine;
Harps are we, silent harps, that have hung in the willow trees,
Dumb till our heartstrings swell and break with a pulse Divine."

St. Mark's Reformed Church.

In January, 1898, the Rev. Edmond Erb gathered together a handful of Reformed people and organized a Reformed congregation at Lincoln, Nebraska. This organization worshipped in the Young Men's Christian Association Hall. Rev. Edmond Erb served this congregation without remuneration until January of 1890 at which time Rev. T. F. Stauffer was commissioned by the Board to take charge of the work. A frame tabernacle was built in April, 1891, and named "Hope Reformed Chapel." This building was situated in the eastern part of the city and was used until April, 1895. About this time the Board purchased a church building in the "Down Town District" and commissioned the Rev. F. H. Fisher to take charge of the work in the new church. With the change of location came the change of name from Hope Reformed to St. Mark's Reformed.

The present pastor, Rev. P. M. Orr, began his work at Lincoln, March 1, 1903. It has indeed been pioneer work planting a Reformed Church at Lincoln. One has to work in the West to be able to appreciate the difficulties of a western missionary.

Rev. T. F. Stauffer left forty-five names on the church roll; the Rev. F. H. Fisher left seventy-five. The present membership is about one hundred.

Peace.

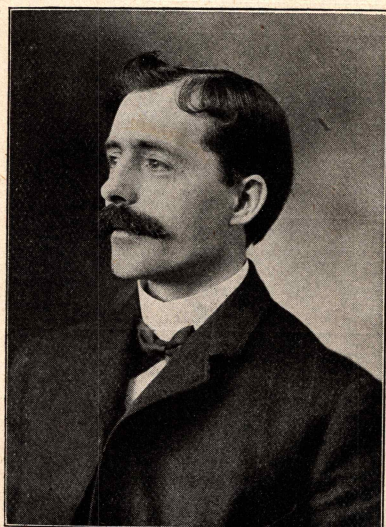

Ere our dear Savior spoke the parting word
To those who loved Him best when here below,
While deep emotion every bosom stirred,
He said, "My peace I give you ere I go!"

His Peace, sweet Peace! As falls the summer dew

On drooping flowers, so fell those words of cheer

Upon the earnest hearts that dimly knew
What they, like their dear Lord, must suffer here.

The First Regularly Organized Sunday School in China.

THE object of the Sunday-school in China is to gather together on Sunday afternoon, the men, women and children for instruction in things pertaining to Christianity. At the meetings, there is a service of song and prayer, after which those present are taught portions of Scripture and the meaning is explained. Dr. Griffith John's catechism is used. The boys and girls, each having a copy, commit questions and answers to be recited at the Sunday session. Here again, the meaning is made plain for them. Those who cannot read are taught the words of the hymns used in the services.

No one is required to attend the Sunday-school but all are invited. The photo shows a good number of boys and girls, with a few ladies, but like some schools at home, no men. It is hoped that some of them will be gotten in later on.

This work we believe to be of the highest importance, and feel confident that under the leadership of Mr. Reimert, with Miss Ziemer and Miss Reifsneider as assistants, the school will become a powerful factor in building up a strong church in Yochow.

The dispensary has no news of special interest. We are not doing anything remarkable. just seeing patients as they come to us on three days of the week, seeing a few urgent or emergency cases between times, and making a few calls in the city. We believe God is opening up a great work for us to do. We seem to be gaining the confidence of the community slowly for we number among our patients officials, from the highest to the lowest, priests, literary men, merchants, mechanics, boatmen, laborers and beggars. We have not only treated the men, but have been called into the homes to treat the women and children. One cold rainy night I was taken to the home of the Prefect to treat his favorite wife. Several ladies of high rank have not hesitated to come to the dispensary on the day for women. The majority of our patients, however, are from the middle and lower classes. All patients receive a portion of the gospel, hear the evangelist speak, and are given an invitation to the public services in the church. As to results we know nothing except that one man, an in-patient, has confessed Christ. We are hoping that others may come under the influence of the evangelistic work and follow his example.

St. Stephen Reformed Church, Perkasié, Pa.

The history of this congregation covers a period of only eighteen years.

In 1886, when the town had a population of a few hundred the organization was effected with eighteen charter members. A new church building was at once erected at a cost of $6000. For a period of eleven years this congregation formed a part of the Sellersville charge. In 1897 it was constituted a charge by itself having a membership of 130. The present membership of the congregation is 338 and the enrollment of the Sunday-school 550.

Because of the rapid growth of both the congregation and Sunday-school the first church had to give way to a much larger edifice, the corner-stone of which was laid May 24, 1903. This new building was dedicated to the service of the Triune God on Sunday, May 1, 1904.

It is built of Rockhill granite with Indiana limestone trimmings, ninety-five by ninety-six feet, extreme dimensions, is heated by steam and lighted by electricity. It is complete in every respect, a 2,000 pound Meneely bell is in the tower, all the floors are carpeted with body brussels, in the auditorium is a fine pipe organ and in the Sunday-school an excellent concert piano.

The parsonage was built at the same time on a lot adjoining the church. It contains thirteen rooms and all modern conveniences.

The church was dedicated free of debt. The cost of the church and parsonage, is $32,000. Eastern Synod met in this church in October, 1904.

The pastors who have served this congregation are: Rev. J. G. Dengler, 1886-1897; Rev. J. Rauch Stein, 1897-1900; Rev. B. Howard Roth, 1900-1902; Rev. Elmer S. Noll, 1902—.

Notable Japanese Offer Congratulations to Our Mission at its Twenty-fifth Anniversary Celebration in Sendai.

HON. CHIKAN HAYAKAWA, Mayor of Sendai.

MOST of the meetings held in Sendai by way of celebrating the Japan Mission's quarter-centennial were of a somewhat private character. However, the dedication of the Girls' School's new recitation hall (Christine Vollmer Faust Memorial) and the congratulatory meeting held Friday night, June 2, 1904, in the new Nibancho church, under the auspices of Miyagi Classis, were more public. On both of these latter occasions prominent people were present. At the Friday night meeting, which was largely attended, congratulatory addresses were made by a number of persons, among whom were Count Kunimune Date, H. E. Teruzane Tanable (governor of Miyagi Province), and Hon. Chikan Hayakawa, (mayor of Sendai). It gives us much pleasure to introduce these kind friends of our Japan Mission to the Reformed Church by means of cuts made from their latest photographs. We also print their congratulatory addresses.

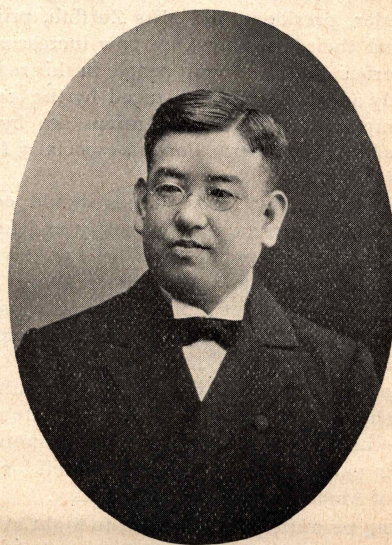

COUNT KUNIMUNE DATE.

A noted feudal chief of ancient Japan was Masamune Date, lord of the Sendai fief from 1567 to 1636. Aside from his fame as a soldier and statesman, he is also celebrated for the embassy that he sent in 1614 to the Pope of Rome and the King of Spain. Some say that this embassy had a political end in view, while others assert that it was intended as an act of religious submission to the pope.

Feudalism has passed away in Japan, and the former lords have been replaced by the nobility. The present successor to the famous Sendai chieftain of old is Count Kunimune Date, who, although not a baptized Christian, thinks favorably of our holy religion. He and his family freely associate with foreign missionaries. His congratulatory address on our Japan Mission's twenty-fifth anniversary follows:

"It is now fifty years since America and Japan began to hold friendly relations with each other, and the present favorable condition of our country is largely due to America's encouragement. My countrymen feel grateful not only for such external things as commerce and industry, but also for the fact that America was good enough to propagate religion. Thus the Reformed Church twenty-five years ago commenced missionary work in our country by sending Mr. Gring in 1879. Our city of Sendai—my ancestor's ancient fief for 300 years—in the lovingkindness of the church was not overlooked, and is now supplied with appliances for spreading Christianity. Moreover Mr. Hoy having founded North Japan College and Miss Poorbaugh Miyagi Girls' School, educational work also made steady progress. The foundations having been carefully laid, the two schools, under the very kind leadership of Dr. Schneder, president, and Miss Zurfluh, principal, and their associates, are now increasingly prosperous, and the young people in this region directly and indirectly influenced by the teaching imparted at these institutions are by no means few in number. For this especially I am grateful.

That the foreign missionaries should come from afar to our country, earnestly and faithfully proclaiming what they believe, loyally discharging the duties of their calling and laboring for the elevation of morality, is, of course, demanded by their religious principles. Nevertheless, how in the world could their efforts have produced such beneficial results as we behold without the close and intimate relations that exist between the two countries? In this particular also I rejoice, as well for the sake of America as of my own country.

Being permitted to be present to-night at this celebration of the beginning of your missionary work in this country, in these imperfect words I offer you my congratulations."

CONGRATULATORY ADDRESS OF H. E. TERUZANE TANABE.

Taking into consideration the conditions under which, in June, 1879, the Japan Mission of the Reformed Church in the United States commenced missionary work in this country, one can perhaps imagine the difficulties in the way of carrying out the Mission's plans and projects in those days. However, those in charge of the work with tireless energy and indomitable will attacked those numerous trials and difficulties, and, brushing aside briars and brambles (as it were), toiled with might and main to move forward, so that finally after only twenty-five years, we are able to see that they have succeeded in establishing over forty churches and preaching-places, with several thousand members. Meanwhile by starting and building up North Japan College and Miyagi Girls' School in this city, they laid the foundations of educational work and thus contributed not a little to the promotion of this cause. Such progress having been made in the few years that have elapsed since the beginning of the work, we are justified in expecting a prosperous career in the future.

To these few words of congratulation on this anniversary, I add my wishes for continued success.

CONGRATULATORY ADDRESS OF HON. CHIKAN HAYAKAWA, MAYOR OF SENDAI.

I feel highly honored at being invited to this twenty-fifth anniversary celebration of your Mission. I have heard that your work began June 1, 1879, when missionary Gring came to Japan; that is to say, on the first of this month it was just twenty-five years ago. Twenty-five years, being almost half the lifetime of a human being, is by no means a short period of time. During this interval Dr. Moore, Mr. Hoy, the Misses Poorbaugh, Dr. Schneder, Miss Zurfluh and others came to our country one after the other. They not only took a personal interest in preaching the gospel, but also themselves educated our young people with untiring patience and energy during these twenty-five years. The pupils who, during these years, received your instruction, have gone out into the world to teach others, who also in turn gradually spread abroad what they have learned so that those who have been the objects of your benevolence are scattered throughout the whole country. Moreover, the churches and preaching-places established by you have reached the high figure of forty-six, and they will increase more and more in number hereafter.

However, as compared with the life of a nation, twenty-five years is not a long time. Yet in this short period, not only has your church made progress, but the contribution it has made directly and indirectly to the history of our country's civilization is by no means small.

To-day in our country the old and the new have become quite distinct, and the civilization of the present era—Meiji—amounts to the appearance upon the scene of a new state of society. In short, it was indeed a blessing that there were such things as missionary societies to lead the way in introducing civilization and to labor zealously for righteousness and morality. Therefore our people recognize America as their guide in opening up their country, and we still rely greatly upon America's friendship.

It gives me great pleasure to be present on this anniversary occasion. I not only congratulate you upon the glorious achievements that your Mission has attained during these long years, but I also wish to give expression to my profound feelings of gratitude for the earnest and warm friendship of the Mission of the Reformed Church in the United States during the past quarter-century.

REV. KAMETARO YOSHIDA.

By a happy coincidence two twenty-fifth anniversaries were celebrated together at Sendai, Japan, in June, 1904. One of the most earnest evangelists—Rev. Kametaro Yoshida—working in connection with our Mission, had a quarter of a century ago entered upon the work of the Christian ministry. Miyagi Classis, of which Mr. Yoshida is president, when it arranged for the large celebration held on Friday night, June 3, in honor of the Mission's twenty-fifth anniversary, took pains to show honor also to this faithful servant of the Lord. Mr. Yoshida delivered an address, which was of a reminiscent character, and subsequently was made happy by the presentation of a new suit of foreign clothes from his Japanese and American friends. He is now for the second time pastor of the church in the large town of Nakamura, Fukushima province.

MIYAGI CLASSIS' PRESENT TO THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

At the celebration in honor of our Mission's quarter-centennial held by Miyagi Classis of the Church of Christ in Japan on Friday night, June 3, 1904, in Sendai, Rev. J. Sasaki, Secretary, in behalf of the Classis, publicly delivered to Rev. Dr. J. P. Moore, for transmission to the Board of Foreign Missions a picture of Mt. Fuji drawn on silk by a teacher in North Japan College, and a box containing a Japanese Bible and a copy of the new hymnal, both beautifully bound in leather. These presents are an expression of gratitude for what the Reformed Church has done in its missionary operations in Japan. They are intended also to be symbolic. Fuji, peerless among the mountains of Japan, typifies the hope that Japan may become good and beautiful among the nations of the earth, while the Bible and hymnal, issued in the Japanese language and printed and bound by Japanese workman, are an index to the progress made by the young Japanese church.

The corner-stone of the new Tohoku Gakuin building was laid on August 24, and work on the building is progressing.

Brown Memorial Reformed Church, Wichita, Kan.

Missionary work was begun in Wichita, Kansas, by Rev. Isaac G. Brown, of Mercersburg, Pennsylvania, in the spring of 1884 and continued by him until his death a year later. Rev. J. W. Love, of Greensburg, Pennsylvania, was commissioned by the Board of Home Missions in 1886 and began his missionary pastorate just as the city was entering upon its remarkable "boom." During the first two years the mission purchased a lot for $12,500 (boom prices) and erected thereon the church building at a cost of about $10,000. The remaining five years of his pastorate the community suffered severely from the boom reaction which did not reach its lowest point till 1896. The present pastor, Rev. Bruce Griffith, graduated from the Seminary at Lancaster, Pennsylvania in 1893, and entered on the pastorate at Wichita, October 1, of the same year. Owing to the continued depression the mission could do little except hold its own for a number of years. During 1903 it paid off its debt which dated from the building of the church, amounting to $1500 and the same year went to self-support after having been aided by the Board regularly for about eighteen years. It began self-support by advancing from $600 to $1,000 salary. Eleven years ago the mission paid, for all purposes $700; during '03 it paid upwards of $2700.

The church is a two story, stone basement and brick superstructure. The architecture is modified Gothic with cathedral windows. The basement contains a main assembly room for Sunday-school and other meetings and several class rooms. The main auditorium occupies the entire second floor. A number of improvements in the building have been made in recent years and it is now one of the most churchly and tasty auditoriums in the city.

The present membership is 140. It has a Sunday-school with an enrollment of 150; a good working Ladies' Aid Society of fifty-five members; a Young People's Society of fifty members; a congregational missionary society and a Chorus Choir (incorporated) of twenty-five members which organization four years ago placed a splendid pipe organ in the church and have almost completed the payment for the same. A Boys' Brigade and a Girls' Club are being organized this season.

The Brown Memorial Reformed Church is recognized as one of the established churches of this growing western city. The pastor is entering upon the twelfth year of his pastorate. He is president of the Wichita Ministerial Association which includes all the Protestant pastors of the city in the active pastorate, about thirty in number.

OUR BABY.

THE group of pictures on the opposite page represents the different buildings in connection with Ft. Wayne Orphans' Home. This Home is the property of the three German Synods of the Reformed Church in the United States. The grounds contain 157 acres, and are situated just northeast of the thriving city of Ft. Wayne, Ind. The institution was established in 1882 by the Northwest and Central Synods. Some years later the German Synod of the East joined these two in its control and management. The Board of Trustees consists of two ministers and one layman from each of the three synods. This Board meets twice a year, and also in special sessions when necessary.

Rev. B. Ruf is now the efficient superintendent of the Home. Rev. Ruf was born in Switzerland in 1857 and came to America in 1883 with a German and French teacher's license. He studied one year in Calvin College at Cleveland, Ohio. He graduated from Heidelberg Seminary, Tiffin, Ohio, in 1887, and in the spring of this year he received the degree of A. M. from Wooster University for his post-graduate work in political and social sciences.

Mrs. Ruf is also a native of Switzerland. She is a devout Christian, an excellent mother, a splendid housekeeper and manager, and a beloved friend to all the orphans.

The Home has taken care of over three hundred children since its existence. The present number of children is eighty-seven. Seven more are received by the Board, but must wait until more room is provided. There is a project on foot now for the building of a Boys' Dormitory. This new building will be sixty by eighty feet in dimensions; the basement provides for a large gymnasium and toilet room. The first floor will contain two school-rooms, two dwelling-rooms and a reception room. On the second floor, there will be bed-rooms for fifty boys, a hospital room, and three rooms for attendants. The erection of this new building, including heating and lighting plant, is expected to cost about $17,000, and is to be finished by May 1, 1905. The value of the whole property as estimated, will then be $70,000.

The total receipts of the Institution, from 1882 to the first of August, 1904, in free-will offerings, pay for boarding scholars, income from farm, etc., were $177,825.04. Last year, there were received for current expenses the sum of $7,071.85.

Rev. H. B. Robrock, Secretary of the Board has this to say of the educational and spiritual advantages of the Home:

"The school facilities are all that can be desired. The county places a teacher in the Home for the four lower grades, and the four upper grades attend the district school, a half mile distant. A high school education is obtained by some in the city, three miles distant. Then our children have the privilege of learning both German and English, which privilege is accorded no other public school in the county.

As to the religious training of the children, it is indeed difficult to say all that is done for them. The employees of the Home, all being devoted children of God, are continually under religious influences. Devotional exercises are conducted regularly every morning and evening; Sunday school every Sunday. Catechetical and religious instructions are attended at one of our churches in the city, where the children are also confirmed and received as communicant members. The good seed of the Word of God is liberally sown. In some hearts it may lie dormant for a season, but we pray that in His own time it may bring forth abundant fruit."

The accompanying illustrations will serve to give some idea of the amusements and beauties of the grounds. Every facility is afforded for making well-rounded men and women out of the children who are placed under the care of this Orphans' Home. Many boys and girls have gone out from the Home and are now adorning positions in many fields of usefulness. One young lady secured the position as teacher in the Orphans' Home school during the sessions of 1904-5. One of the young men graduated from the Mission House Seminary in the spring of 1904 and is now pastor at Bucyrus, Ohio.

Brethren, if God has blessed you in this world's goods, double the blessing by helping the Orphans' Homes in our denominations.

For the Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will He withhold from them that walk uprightly. Ps. 84: 11.

OUR LAKES.

First Reformed Church at Denver.

THE First Church of Denver is on the western frontier of Reformed Churches in the United States, yet it has as beautiful a location as any where-soever. It is on Capitol Hill only eight blocks from the state capitol, with a fine parking on the Emerson Street side of thirty-three feet and on Seventeenth Avenue of seventeen feet. The building stands thirty-five feet from the front pavement leaving room for an imposing front when there is need for one. The congregation is made up largely of Reformed people from Ohio and Pennsylvania, though there are being received yearly, members from other than Reformed sources. This church must look to the outside for its recruits, in as much as there is no denominational constituency from which to draw. The organization of the church, therefore, has special reference to the outside people. To reach the boys, there is a "Knights of King Arthur" Court, with fifteen members between ten and fifteen years of age. This organization ministers to body, mind and spirit. There is an "Altar Guild" for the young girls and a social club called the "K. I. T. Club" for young ladies and gentlemen, meeting weekly. A room in the basement, nicely furnished lends itself admirably to these societies. It is called "The Work-shop," because there part of the Father's work in building character is done. Junior and Senior Endeavor Societies are maintained with considerable success. A movement is on foot which will end, no doubt, in the organization of a "Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip." The Ladies' Aid Society renders splendid service to the congregation, socially and financially. The consistory numbers ten, and is one of the best working organizations in the church. The Sunday-school is not large, but aims to do thorough work. To meet obligations other than those of a current nature, the congregation has set out to raise "Forward Funds," of $100 each, every three months. Contributions to strictly denominational benevolences, have for three years, averaged $2.50 a member, some of the special collections reaching almost $100. God has blessed the work and we pray for a continuance of His favor.

The St. Paul Reformed Church.

THE St. Paul Reformed congregation, Waynesboro, Penn., was organized August 9, 1873. For about three years the public services were held in the home hall. During the summer of 1876 a plat of ground was purchased and a modest frame structure erected in which the congregation worshipped for twenty-seven years. The corner-stone of the new church was laid Sunday, June 15, 1902. The pastor was assisted in the services by the Rev. E. V. Gerhart, D.D. L.L.D., the Rev. Wm. C. Schaeffer, D.D., and the Rev. I. M. Motter. On Sunday, January 24, 1904, the church was consecrated to the worship of the Triune God, the pastor being assisted in the services by the Rev. J. C. Bowman, D. D., the Rev. David N. Dittmar and the Rev. Isaac M. Motter. The style of the building is modified Gothic. The material is Avondale stone, with Cleveland sandstone trimming. The interior wood-work is red oak. The fresco is gold, olive and terracotta. The windows are opalescent glass. The chancel furniture and pews are selected quartered oak, hand-carved. A Hook-Hastings pipe-organ has been installed. The main auditorium seats 300, the Sunday-school 325. When thrown together between 600 and 700 people can be accommodated very comfortably; both seeing and hearing the minister. The building is heated by steam and lighted with electricity. The total cost was $30,000. The congregation is without debt. The present enrolled membership is 164. The roll of pastors is as follows: Rev. Wm. C. Schaeffer, D.D., July 1874-July 1876; Rev. Isaac M. Motter, Oct. 1876-1890; Rev. Sefellen E. Stofflett, May 1890-June 1895; Rev. A. S. Dechant, supply Oct. 1895-July 1896; Rev. Edward O. Keene, Aug. 1896.

Tominosuke Misawa.

This faithful evangelist of the Church of Christ in Japan and worker in connection with our Reformed mission there, departed this life on April 15, 1904. He was a gendarme for thirteen years, but his call to the ministry became so strong that he resigned his position in order to make preparation. In 1894 he was licensed by Miyagi Classis. In the providence of God he was permitted to preach the gospel just ten years. He died of pneumonia. A wife and three sons survive him. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

Tohoku Gakuin Rodokwai.

This is the Japanese name of the Industrial Home of North Japan College.

How to aid poor students without pauperizing them is a difficult educational problem in Japan as well as elsewhere. Rev. M. Oshikawa years ago undertook to solve the problem by privately founding the Industrial Home. He succeeded in creating an admirable spirit in the students who entered the Home, but, in spite of great sacrifices and outside aid, he found the financial burden too heavy to carry. The Home was then turned over to North Japan College. Rev. S. S. Snyder was appointed to look after its business interests, and under his energetic direction the plant was removed and considerably enlarged. The present manager is Rev. J. M. Stick, who, with competent Japanese assistants, is making a success of the enterprise.

The Industrial Home plant now comprises, apart from its dormitories, a dairy, a truck garden, a printing office and a store. It also contracts for the delivery of daily newspapers. On June 1, 1904, there were 69 students in the Home, of whom 46 had become Christians. Of all the students who have been in the Home, about 40 per cent were converted. At one time the Board of Foreign Missions granted aid to the extent of $600 annually, but last year, business having been good, only $450 was needed. The present value of the entire plant is estimated at $5,350.

The Industrial Home stands for the dignity of labor, self-reliance, practical piety and self-government, while at the same time the students in it are not a whit behind others in scholarship.

Just now the crying need of the Home is better living accommodations. The illustrations give but an inadequate idea of the real raggedness of the dormitories. A few thousand dollars would be a veritable godsend to the poor students who so uncomplainingly put up with their shabby quarters.

Needs of the Yamagata—Akita (Japan) Field.

For a long time our missionary work in this important field, which comprises two provinces, was in a backward state, but matters are slowly improving. In order to develop it properly, several things are necessary, viz., 1. New missionary families to locate in the more important cities and towns. 2. Money for organs. 3. A Bible Woman's School in the city of Yamagata.

"That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after Him, and find Him, though He be not far from every one of us: for in Him we live, and move, and have our being."—Acts 17:27, 28.

His first charge was in Clay City, Ind., where he continued three years. His next charge was in Orrville, Ohio, where he remained a comparatively short time, the German church in Akron calling him to minister unto them. Failing health compelled him to leave Akron after a year's pastorate. His removal to Wisconsin seemed to restore his health, and after a year's rest he accepted the Green Bay Mission. He did effective work but consumed his strength. On July 22 he had a hemorrhage and on Sunday morning, July 24, he quietly passed away. Nearly all the members of Sheboygan Classis and a large concourse of friends were present when he was laid to rest. His wife and two children and his mother and a brother survive him.

REV. ROBERT G. ASSMANN was born Nov. 23, 1842, near Marburg, Hesse-Nassau, Germany. He was educated in the gymnasium at Marburg and became a teacher. He came to this country in 1872 and settled in Philadelphia, Pa., where he again taught. He felt a call to the ministry and studied privately for eight years, till 1880, when he was examined and ordained. His first charge was at Hazelton, Pa., where he labored with success, though bodily ailments began to trouble him. His next charge was in Cumberland, Md., where he labored two years, when his broken health compelled him to retire. He made his home in Philadelphia, where he continued to do such ministerial work as his condition would permit. His sickness increased, and the final summons came April 21, 1904. His wife and four children survive.

260,000 and 11,000,000.

While there are about 260,000 people belonging to the Reformed Church in the United States, in the whole world there are about 11,000,000. This shows that the Reformed Church is not a small, but a great body.

It is up-to-date, and meets the wants of all congregations. Names of members need only be written once, and the book will last at least seven years. Small congregations can make it last twice that long.

It contains nine important records for different purposes, viz., pastors, elders, deacons, trustees, members, when and how received; baptisms, marriages, deaths, a communion record, showing the standing of each member on one page for seven years; also the annual statistical table and report, such as is sent to classis, with blank pages for history, constitution or minutes.

It fills a long-felt want, and the price is very low, $2.25 postpaid; substantially bound, cloth sides, leather back.

If Interested in Sanitary Heating You Should Not Fail to Investigate..

Read what Rev. H. O. Jorris, Pastor of Reformed Church, has to say:

CRESTLINE, OHIO, March 26, 1903.

GENTLEMEN:—The two large size furnaces which were placed in our new church last fall, have been put to a severe test last winter, but, am glad to say, were not found wanting. They have done the work exceedingly well. How could it be otherwise? An article made by men of superior qualifications and character, such as the Schill Bros. are, must necessarily be of superior quality.

Yours sincerely,

H. O. JORRIS.

LEWIS P. PETERS,

The Expert. Souvenir Glass Paper Weights. Photographer and Publisher. E. Mauch Chunk, Pa.

These paper weights are an appropriate souvenir for raising funds for churches. A lasting souvenir of your church and pastor. You assume no risk and I ask no money in advance, but allow you 30 days' time to sell them. The only party that will make a free sample to any pastor by sending photo. The only party that will make any number of weights at the same rate.

TESTIMONIALS.

To Whom it May Concern:

The paper weights made by Mr. Lewis P. Peters of E. Mauch Chunk, are a very fine piece of workmanship. They are not only an ornamental, but also a very useful article, selling at sight. The Ladies' Aid society of Heidelberg Reformed Church, Hatfield, sold them, and so rapidly they disposed of them that they were obliged to order a second time. I can conscientiously recommend them to any society or congregation desiring to raise money in a perfectly legitimate way. I have known Mr. Peters for many years and he will deal honestly and liberally with all who give him a trial. Very sincerely,

REV. J. O. LINDAMAN,

Pastor of Hilltown Reformed Church, Perkasie, Pa.

Mr. Lewis P. Peters' paper weights received all right, and they are very satisfactory. You will find enclosed bank check for the amount, thanking you for your favor. We have thus far raised $140 and will have more to get in the near future, also of our pastor's wife. Thanking you, I remain

WM. R. SPATZ,

Pastor, Rev. T. Garland, U. B. Church, Mt. Carmel, Pa.

To Whom it May Concern:

I desire to certify that we have had work done by Mr. Lewis P. Peters, and that it was in every particular, right. Mr. Peters is an honest, upright and trustworthy gentleman, who will do his best to please his patrons.

REV. W. C. L. LAUER,

Pastor St. John's Lutheran Church, E. Mauch Chunk, Pa.
